Why Do You Want To Be A Leader?

- Everyone has a leader within:
 - Everyone has skills they can use to make a difference
 - No two leaders are the same
 - Your attitude and outlook create your vision
 - Be a builder and supporter of women and your team

What IMPACT do you want to make on your club?

- Be in it for the cause, not the applause
- Help take your Club to the next level
- Do what you signed up to do
- Have a vision to make your position better when you leave it than when you found it!
- Reach out if you need help
- Solve problems

Review your Skills

- Take inventory of what you are good at and where you would like to grow!
- How does this compare with the role you are interested in?
- Are you willing to be educated on jobs outside of your comfort zone?
- Are you willing to serve where needed?

Important Relationships

- Mentors:
 - Finding footsteps to follow in
 - Finding characteristics you want to emulate
 - Finding resources that you are comfortable calling
- Your Team
 - Trust and respect your teammates
 - Enable and work toward collaboration
 - Be willing to have respectful, crucial conversations
 - Teamwork MAKES THE DREAM WORK - believe it and live it!

Board Personalities

- Spend time during the summer President Planning sessions getting to know one another!
 - Each of us have communication traits when working in a team
 - We ALL have the ability to pull from our tool kit to draw out other traits when needed!
 - Identify YOUR traits and how they interact with others' traits using personality tests such as the True Colors personality test.
 - This will help your team learn how to respect, and work well with, one another!
 - Resources for True Colors and other tests can be found online!

Making Connections:

- Current Club leaders
- The person you just took the role from
- Club Members
- District Liaison
- Federation Board
- University Contacts

Resources:

- Aggie Mom University Courses
- Federation Website
- Federation Meetings via Zoom or in person in College Station
- Internet searches
- Good ol' books!

Execute Successfully

- Believe in yourself
- Believe in your team
- Understand the expectations of the position
- Understand and support the President's vision
- Know and meet your calendar and deadlines
- Be Intellectually curious
 - Ask for guidance
 - Increase your competence
 - Understand your team dynamics
